My dr. Sir

I have been very much called from home lately – and had calculated to devote to day to writing several letters of business and particularly to yourself, at length – but the coming in of friends has prevented me – It is now night, and I have time only to say but little – as it cannot well be defined – I called on the Rev. J. Wills to inform me how the voucher was to be managed – and he said he could not tell – having never seen any of those papers connected with that transaction – I could not give him correct information about it – I do not know and could not tell him – whether you credited the judgment award, or considered it a payment before the making out the award &c. – So make a statement of the matter and furnish me the best voucher you can – It is a pity it was ever blended with the transaction of Hemsley
