Talbot County May 15th 1838.

My dear Sir,

I wish thank you to forward me by the first safe conveyance your name at the bottom of some slips of paper for the renewal of Hamilton Filsmans note, if they are received by the return of the Judges servant, whom he comes down for him, it will be in good time. —

After much trouble and anxiety I closed Mr. Brown's case against Mr. Hensley nearly a year ago, by paying a balance then due of $617.43 as per statement account now herewith with short copy of Judgt. Ords. a copy of which I inclose you, which shows the applications of funds as they were received from various sources. The first $2000 was rec.d for the sale of servants whom I sold in Balto. as also $200 of the next payment for two children whom I could not sell for some time after, $119 from cents from the sale of James Hensleys personal property adding some cents myself to make the payment $320. — The 500$ paid by my check was in lieu of 100$ placed in Bank to my credit by Mr. Banning for the purchase of Cynthia, which remained
