Colo Tilghman Sir

I sent to your farm six hundred and seventyseven rails, and I received twenty five barels of corn, the ballance for the rails, (if convenient) you can send by the bearer I would be much obliged to you if you could let Judge Earl know that my boat is over, and that he can have an opportunity of sending the money or a check for the rails delivered him by my servant. I think that in malling so many sound rails that I can get the number of flat ones you want, if so I will send them to you, and if you determine on taking the sound rails that you mentioned that you thought you would want this fall, you can authorize me to do so and I will send them to you. The rails you wrote for; for Mr Wilmer I can send one thousand this month and the other three thousand in July. If this will suit him I have to make up the ballance of the thousand Mr Cook was to have this month, which will take but a few of the present load, and Mr Wilmer can have the ballance the remainder of of the thousand I can send him about the last of the month

Respectfully yours

Thomas Robinson

Colo John Tilghman

P. S. If Mr Wilmer takes a part of this load, you will please inform the bearer where to land them.
