Philadelphia May 18th 1833

Dear Sir

Since mine of the 10th inst., Mr Ingraham has sent me a copy of the release in Brambler's cases here, by which it appears that he is discharged of the amount of the bill against him in Maryland, and that this bill was expressly taken into consideration and allowed in making up the award - So that the claim against him is ended - As this matter took place in October last, after I had terminated my connexion with his estate in Pennsylvania I of course left the whole subject under Mr Bond's control and was not aware of the terms of the settlement until now - The estate is prospering well out of Brambler's claim on the terms concluded upon, viz paying him $300 and cancelling the bill against him in Maryland - There was no sort of evidence to show any alteration in the original written agreement with Brambler, which stipulated that the amount he claimed should be paid to him -

Unless I hear from you to the contrary, I shall leave town on Wednesday morning next, and arrive at Centreville on Thursday afternoon the 23d inst., so as to be present at your Orphans Court, which, if I remember rightly, sits on Friday the 24th -

I remain as always with great regard and esteem truly yours

B. Chew Jr.
