at his own request I sent him to sell for me for $120 retaining all he could over that amount for his commissions, believing at the time, (I think the spring of 1827) that he would command $150.

Mrs A. M. Tilghman desires me to say that she is also willing to settle her claim on the farm, a statement of which I forwarded you. Upon receipt — By an endorse: — dated the 20th August 1828 [illegible] for $458 34/100 for his share to be paid by Ellen Shoemaker, [illegible] the last claim against him for $45 [illegible] Baltimore. On his account the proceeds can be given up regularly. —

I congratulate you on the good health of your family & am happy to inform you that Maria & the family have including Margaret Mary Wilson been all well. — When the Dividend is made I will join you in a visit to Philadelphia. — Could you ever make the enquiry I requested you about the assignment of Richard Lloyd to his father, in whose hands it placed & I have never been any thing of it among the Old Gentleman's papers. — I am in the hight of my harvest here which I hope will turn out a pretty good one, though it will not be a half so from 18 to 20 by the [illegible] I shall [illegible] meeting to make my views known to their relations, they will be at [illegible] Baltimore where we have [illegible] meaning of [illegible] you as the [illegible] to [illegible] for [illegible] —

P.S. Shall inform Mrs [illegible] Dolbrough by the first opportunity of the receipt of Mr Rowle's letter. —
