Letters
Mr. A. G. Lilgham
relating to Mr. Ons Mr.
H. Lilgham's Claim
Dms 1833
John Filsman Esq
Centre-Ville
Queen Anne

Boxlott

8th Mo 7

26th June

Is it not a great trial of our fortitude and patience to find that a single individual has the power to overturn all our plans & hopes? — When you so promptly & considerately entered into our views on the subject of this unhappy claim — Judge Brice was confidently assured — that Mr. Filsman would see the unreasonableness & impropriety & at once agree — whereas Judge Bedestow writes that there is no hope of bringing him to our view — and much fear all is at an end! — Tho' the Judge's comment was — "the lady is crooked & I will put her straight" — however I am heart sick & head sick — for I had looked to it, to smooth my path until I got into good business (as I may say) — which is not to be done in a month — My idea is that Mr. Filsman thinks to force me