much confidence in, he has acted a very friendly part towards me without any interested motives whatever. The first note comes due on the 28th of June, by which time we shall be able, with your kind exertions to have every thing satisfactorily arranged, we have no reason to complain of the delay that have been made thus far, they show pretty fair. If you have not a memo. of the notes, please write me to that effect in your letter and I will furnish you with one. Mr Bane has presented his bills to the court some time since and they must be nearly ready, if not quite, for distribution. They required about a month I think for settlement, and it has been nearly that time. Mr Rawle is anxious to know, why he dont hear from the heirs in Maryland, they were urgent for the payment of that part, a short time since, but now he can learn nothing from them, tis ready for them should they want it, be kind enough to say as much to the folks perhaps they have too much down there, if so they can dispose of it to advantage in the city. Love to Aunt and Kate, and every one at home, also Cousin Rue's family, and the Judge's. tell Kate I would send her Fanny Butler Journal, if I knew of an opportunity.

Sincerely and truly Yours

Geo. W. Hemsley
