this evening, for a short time, he is the President of the College, & I believe he expects to be in Cincinnati to morrow =

some Money will be required in Wm acct — and any sum that you can spare from the proceeds of the sale will be thankfully rec^d — Mr Brice in his letter of last week informs me, that as more furniture belle of sale was obliged to be purchased before the balance could be paid Mr S. Hepburn's acc^t shall be given for any amt you can let him have — and would be glad to hear from you on his return —

Very Respectfully
yours —
