Letter from Mrs Browne

To — Hiram Harrison Esqr
Centreville

Letter from the Martha T. Browne containing copies of single bills against S. Ogle Tilghman and Capt Bryan for judgments.

1845

Warrington October 28th 1845

My dear Sir

Ogle Tilghman was here yesterday — he is willing to give a judgment — (I believe it is called to confess judgment) for the amount he is owing me — and promised he would write or see you in the course of a day or two — before court — He would prefer if it could be done that the whole amount of the three Notes should be included in one acknowledgement — He says that he has paid several judgments which have not been struck off the docket — Agreeable to your directions I will write a copy of his Notes before — Mary joins me in kind regards to yourself & Mrs Harrison —

Yours very respectfully
M. T. Browne

For value received we jointly and severally promise and oblige ourselves, our heirs, Executors and administrators to pay or cause to be paid to Martha T. S. Ogle Tilghman (Seal)
Witness E. A. Fairbairn — Valentine Bryan — (Seal)
