My dear Uncle

I received your kind note on Saturday, and called there to see you but found you out in the evening you were engaged in court, I dont know that I understand you, did you mean you could pay my taxes in addition to the hundred dollars enclosed, or out of the hundred dollars, either way I should be much indebted to you for attending for me, my taxes amount to $50.21 I dont suppose they will charge interest as they have never presented the account, George accompanied the amount so while he was with us please let me hear from you as soon as convenient

Monday morning

Respectfully yours
Robert J. Ca[illegible]
