Chester Town April 22 1846

Dr Sir

I hope you will excuse my urgency calling your attention to the account against you in Mrs Dec'd Husbands books, you were in Town previous to the loss of my house, and as requested you were kind enough to call before leaving, & I then shewed you the books - when the account was regularly carried on, of which you took a memorandum, and said you would examine your books on your return home; do me the favour to write me on the subject, at the earliest possible moment as I am now very desirous of closing the books which cannot be done, until all accts are settled the Orphans Court & the Heirs are aware of this claim, & I shall justly be charged, with negligence, if I defer it any longer & they are all equally anxious with myself for a final close of the business - and I also must ask the favour of you to let me know - when you hear from Mr Lear, & what prospect there is for a speedy payment, with kind regards - to your family -

I remain very respectfully yours -

H Tilghman -
