Cliffords mornings. Last spring in consequence of the Chief's absence from home, but is now perfectly well.
The cattle are Durhams & Devons, but chiefly these two breeds crossed on the improved country breed.
The sheep are both Leicesters & Southdowns. Both the sheep are for either the butcher or breeder [illegible] for either the butcher or breeder
[illegible] Lambs for the estate & Steam Mill Co.
[illegible] Six o'clock on the day of sale.

Mr Stuart esq
Kinnel
Feb 1-25th 1842

My dear Sir,

Warner pro tem will explain the [illegible]
[illegible] pro tem
[illegible] the contents of an account against the estate of the late Lord [illegible] not being so very [illegible]
[illegible] moment I am [illegible] in [illegible]
[illegible] the amount due [illegible]
[illegible] received from [illegible] ~~You should have [illegible]~~
This may need explanation
[illegible] the bill
There is one item [illegible] for the engraving the portrait [illegible] the charge for the engraving the portrait of Lady Clifden. I am ignorant of the usage in such cases, but it has been suggested to me that this charge is unusual & there may be mistake in it.
Can you inform me who runs the [illegible]