Dear Father

I recieved your letter by Henry and will have your orders attended to Emory comes up with the cart to see you by choice, he is rather uneasy about his situation his family have left

We have done nothing towards cuting up the pork for this place owing to capt Lowe having a part of his load in and wished to get of to Balt this evening the pork generly is in fine order. Mr Porter has done nothing to the canoe Deb sends Kates blene fouls by the cart marked with with a blene yarn string only one piece of linsy done 1½ doz of Ducks

The whole weight of the pork is		5246
Put up for hands - - - -	2496
Mr Rollison - - - - - - -	305
Mr Porter - - - - - - - - - -	300
	3101 -	3101
Sent up		2145

you will please to write to Mr Rollison about the beef as there has been but one put up one box of soap, one pot of butter, one stone pitcher, 68 eggs chickens

Your Affte Son

17

Sherwood Nov 29th 1848

A W Silghman