North fifty four degrees, West eight perches, thence South twenty eight & three quarter degrees, West twenty seven perches, thence South eighty four & a half degrees, West thirteen & six tenths perches, thence South forty seven degrees & forty five minutes, West eleven & a half perches, thence South forty four & a half degrees, East four & a half perches, thence South thirty one and a half degrees, West thirty four perches, thence South sixty one & a quarter degrees, West twenty four and eight tenths perches to the Land of Frank Emory thence with his land & the land of William McKenney, South forty five degrees, East one hundred & fifty eight & six tenths perches to the Rock Road, thence still with the McKenney land South thirty eight degrees, West forty eight & three tenths perches, thence South five & a quarter degrees West twenty five & two tenths perches thence, South twenty & a half degrees, West forty six & four tenths perches, thence South sixty & a quarter degrees, East ninety perches to a small creek or cove, thence up said cove, North thirty six de-