TAXATION OF MORTGAGES.—This subject is attracting much interest at present, not only in our Legislature, but in local associations throughout the State. The agricultural association of this county has appointed a committee with instructions to report resolutions opposing the tax.—The correspondent of the association and another writer in this issue express opposite views upon the subject. It is a matter upon which a good deal might be said pro and con.

THE President on Monday sent the following nominations to the Senate: James Russell Lowell, L. L. D., of Massachusetts, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Great Britain; John W. Foster, of Indiana, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Russia; Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Spain, and Philip H. Morgan, of Louisiana, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Mexico. These appointments are in obedience to civil service ideas, in the sense that they have been made from the diplomatic service and are promotions. Mr. Lowell, the well known poet and professor in Harvard University, was an elector on the Massachusetts electoral ticket in 1876, and when Mr. Hayes took his seat was appointed minister to Spain, where he has represented the country very acceptably.

UNITED STATES SENATOR-ELECT GARFIELD, of Ohio, was given a reception in the capitol at Columbus Wednesday night, of last week. He made a speech, in which, after referring to the late civil war and the prompt response of Ohio troops to the call to arms, he paid a warm tribute to Sen. Thurman, "than whom," he said, "Ohio has had few larger-minded, broader-minded men in the record of its history." Speaking of his service in Congress from a district whose approbation he had always desired, he still more desired the approbation of one person, and his name was Garfield. "He is the only man," he said, "I am compelled to sleep with and eat with, and if I could not have his approbation I should have bad companionship."

AN IMPORTANT METHODIST COUNCIL—The Topics to be Discussed.—The 'Philadelphia Record says an important movement is on foot looking to the convening of an Ecumenical Council or Conference of Methodists from all parts of the world, to be held in the United States some time next year. This idea was first mooted at the Methodist Episcopal Conference held in Baltimore in May, 1876, when a committee was appointed by the board of bishops to take it into consideration. This body, of which Right Rev. Bishop Simpson is chairman, has been in correspondence with representatives of the American Wesleyan Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the Methodist Protestant Church, the Evangelical Association, the Methodist and Methodist Episcopal Churches of Canada, the Wesleyan Methodists of England and other bodies in every quarter of the world. Favorable replies have been received from one and all of these bodies, Bishop Simpson has issued a request for the meeting of the committee, to be held in Cincinnati on May 6th, to prepare a call for the council. Every recognized organization of Methodists will be invited to send its representatives. It is expected that the conference will represent 20,000,000 Methodists in all parts of Christendom, as well as in Asia and Africa. Its formal object will be to discuss "topics relating to the position, work and responsibility of Methodism for the evangelization." The discussions will not be limited to a mere interchange of views on general subjects, but will embrace proposed changes in church rules and modes of government reform in missionary work, and the adoption of a common psalmody among all Methodist churches, as well as a uniform order of service. This latter feature, however, does not mean the adoption of a prayer book, after the Protestant Episcopal form, but the introduction of regular and stated order of service, the tendency at the present time being in the direction of an increased formality in the modes of worship.

Report of the Board of Education.

Gov. Hamilton has transmitted to the Legislature the report of the State Board of Education. This board is at present composed of P. A. Witmer, John P. R. Gilliss, E. Hall Richardson, James T. Williams and M. A. Newell, secretary. The Governor is ex officio president of the board.

The report of the State board covers operations to September 30, 1879. The total number of schools in the State is 2,000, of which 125 are in Baltimore city and 1884 in the counties. The number of pupils in city 53,392, counties 112,094—total 165,486. The increase of schools for the year was 20, and of pupils 9,212, the average number of months the schools were open in the city was 10 and in the counties 8 5-6. The total paid for teachers' salaries was $1,139,421, of which $500,947 was paid city teachers and $638,473 county teachers. The total expenditures for public school purposes were: Baltimore city $643,894 19, counties $907,661 13—total $1,155,556 32. The total expenditures for 1878 were $1,593,259 66—a decrease in 1879 of $41,703 34. The detailed items of expenditure for county schools in which an increase is shown are: Salaries $7,164, buildings $1,784, incidentals $1,887, miscellaneous $825. The items which show a decrease are: Books and stationery $2,287, supervision $681, interest $192. Indebtedness $14,122.

The views of the board respecting the propriety of any change in the school law at the present time are given in the expressions on this subject by a committee of the Association of Public School Commissioners at their last meeting in Baltimore, November 26, 1879. This committee reported that the "school law as it stands fairly represents the sentiments of the people of Maryland. While peculiarly adapted to our own wants, it comprises many of the best features of the best systems of other States." In the last canvass "no opinion adverse to the system was expressed by any party; on the contrary all parties indorsed the general principle, while a large majority approved the details of the law and the mode of administration. Only the method of appointing school commissioners and the expense of the system were ojected to. In regard to the appointment of school commissioners only one judge has refused to perform the extra duty imposed by the law, and has done it satisfactorily, and there seems to be no reason to make a change." As to the cost, the report says that "while the aggregate is large, it is small in comparison with the work to be done. The total cost is but little more than $8 per capita." The report also declares that "it is very doubtful whether the expenditure has not been already reduced below the point that true economy would indicate. We may be able to hold our own, but the loss of $100,000 annually by the white schools under the provisions of chapter 91 of 1878 will paralyze our power for future progress, unless the voluntary contributions of the people in the several counties shall make up the deficiency." The effect of chapter 91, laws of 1878, has been to lessen the legal income of the white schools $100,000 a year. The actual income has not suffered so much, owing to the fact that the amount received by the school boards was not paid in full for several years previous to 1878. Still the loss has been sensibly felt. It has retarded the building of school houses and postponed necessary repairs; it has prevented the schools in some counties from being kept open four terms in the year, as required by law; it has reduced the teachers' salaries in some counties and increased local taxation in others. Progress under the circumstances is difficult, and it is very doubtful if the present advanced position can be long maintained. There is no man in Maryland at all conversant with the subject who does not know that the State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars was intended for the support of white schools exclusively. In fact when the tax was first imposed the colored schools received no part of it whatever, and had no legal right to any part. They were entitled merely to "the total amount of taxes paid for school purposes by the colored people. As regards honest administration, the State board claims that in the fifteen years since the beginning of the system nearly $12,000,000 have passed through the hands of forty different county treasurers without the loss of a single dollar and without one plausible charge of serious indiscretion. The report does not say how the system of selecting teachers could be better guarded than at present. The total number of public schools in the counties is 383; number of teachers, 387; number of different pupils, 22,331.

AN ISLAND DEVASTAVED BY A FLOOD—Two Hundred Lives Lost.—A dispatch from St. Thomas states that newshas just reached there of terrible floods on the Island of St. Kitts, by which two hundred lives have been lost, property to the extent of $250,000 destroyed and the whole island devastated. The island is twenty-three miles long, fifteen miles broad and covers an area of sixty-seven square miles. It is one of the Loeward group of the British West Indies, and was settled in 1625 by English and French colonies, and divided into upper and lower parts. It was the scene of much bloody strife between the two nations until 1783, when it was ceded to Great Britain by the treaty of Versailles.

HON. SAMUEL J. TILDEN, in a letter expressing regret at being unable to join the democrats of Essex county, N. J., on the 8th of January, in commemorating the services of Andrew Jackson recalled Old Hickory's "administration of the government in its true principles," and declared that whilst Jackson "maintained the integrity of the country against the public enemy, and suppressed nullifications and secession at home, he was opposed to usurpation of powers by the federal government in derogation of the rights of individuals or localities, and in violation of the constitution." Mr. Tilden points the proper moral from these citations.

THAT POLITICAL DODGE.—The New York Evening Post, representing the independent republicans of that city and State, with reference to the proposed change in the mode of choosing New York's presidential electors, says: "The argument from party expedience as well as from justice is so strong against making any change just now in the method of choosing electors that we shall be surprised if the bill introduced finds much favor in the Legislature.

FALL FROM A MAST.—Richard Berry, aged about 25 years, a seaman on the bark Light Brigade, in the harbor of Baltimore, fell from the top of the mainmast to the deck, a distance of 50 feet. His right arm was fractured and two ribs were broken and driven into the lungs. He was otherwise badly hurt. His condition is critical, but the physicians have hope for his recovery.

ONE of the most decided republicans in this county told us last week, that should Senator Bayard be nominated by the Democrats for President against Gen. Grant for a third term, he would vote for Bayard; and gave it as his opinion that nearly all the Republicans oposed to a Third Term candidate are in favor of Bayard. There can be no reasonable doubt that Senator Bayard can beat Grant easily, and he is the Democrats the country wants.—Easton Star.

HON. JOHN WELSH, of Philadelphia, ex-Minister to England, has received a letter from a large number of citizens of New York, tendering him a dinner at Delmonico's as a public expression of their appreciation of his services in the able and efficient manner with which he conducted the affairs of the great international exhibition of 1876, and also for the satisfactory manner with which he represented this country as minister plenipotentiary to Great Britain.

THE Boston Post has the following: "Almost every man has at last one page in his life that he would like to tear from the record. It is so with Ion. A. Gorman, the coming Senator from Maryland. Excellent opinions are expessed on all sides concerning him but till this fact remains—he was once presient of a base ball club."

ARCHBISHOP GIBBONS will make a visit to Rome soon after Easter, in accordance with the custom of all prelates to visit the head of the Catholic Church at least once in ten years. This will be his first visit to Rome since he was elected to the See of Baltimore.

GEN. GRANT and party have engaged passage on the steamship City of Alexandria, which is expected to leave Havana on the 18th of February for Mexico.

FRUIT TREES

W. S. STEPHENS & CO., Agents for the

FREDERICK NURSERIES

Are now in Kent canvassing for orders. They call special attention to their

which are suited to this latitude, viz: The Duchess of Oldenburg, Tetofsky, Pewaukee, Late Russian, Magog and Peter the Great. These have proved to be adapted to our trying climate; they are as hardy as an oak, and come into bearing the second year after transplanting.

They belong to a different class, and are very desirable because they add five more to the very short list of extra hardy fruits.

We would also call attention to the

"Bower's Early Peach."

This Peach originated in Woodsboro', Frederick county, Maryland, and is a free stone of large size, some of the specimens measuring ten inches in circumference. It is light fleshed with a beautiful dark red cheek and of excellent quality.

Thos. Mehan, of the Gardeners' Monthly, says: "It is a great pleasure to see so large a size with so early a fruit. The flavor was exquisite. So far as it is possible to judge we should say this is a long way in advance of our best early kind."

We have also a fine collection of

HYBRID PERPETUAL ROSES,

Bourbon Roses, Tea Roses,
Clinging Roses, Moss Roses,
China or Bengal Roses,

DECIDUOUS AND ORNAMENTAL TREES.

These Nurseries are best known for reliability in the neighborhood where located, and we are prepared to give references of some of the most prominent citizens of this State. Purchasers may confidently rely upon all orders filled being as represented.

MR. J. S. KNAPP—Sir: I have made a thorought est of the London Food and recommend it to the public as a good Improvement Food for Horses. I will use it in preference to any condition powders I know of. [They have 300 horses.]
Respectfully, R. PRICE,
Sup't Citizens Line Street R. R.

Carrollton, Carroll Co., Md., Feb. 11, 1879.

JOHN S. KNAPP—Sir: Having used the London Horse and Cattle Food on both my horses and cows, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a good condition food for the horse and a profitable condiment for cattle, as it will cause cows to give more milk and make at least 25 per cent. more butter than any condition powders I ever used. Hoping this will induce my friends to try it, after which I am convinced they will bear the same testimony as to its merits as I do.
Yours, respectfully,
