It was very unfortunate that the Flower City stakes did not fill at Rochester, yet there was splendid racing and close finishes and a fair attendance. The weather was somewhat unclement throughout.

The weather god favored the trotters however when they moved to Springfield, Mass., and improvement in attendance at once showed itself. 10,000 people saw the great race between Chronos and Lady Sheridan, as also that great first heat in the free-for-all pace between Grant's Abdallah and Linden, in 2:10½.

The last meeting of the Grand Circuit was at Hartf where the Charter Oak Stake, $10,000, and a three-y old stake of $10,000, besides a great array of class ra formed a brilliant ending to the series.

There was a monster crowd to see the tenth contest the $10,000 stake, which bears the name of the fam old track.

From New York and all parts of new England t came in large numbers, while such far-off visitors Major DuBois, of Denver, Col., watched the royal sp

Not only had the strongest field that ever met in event come together, but the money invested was la and the time made faster than in any previous year.

The Hartford Purse—the three-year-old stake proved a battle royal in every sense of the word. It the climax in the drama and closed the scene of Grand Circuit Meetings of 1892. These two races ever be remembered with pleasure by the peopl Hartford, and those from a distance who were fortu to witness them.
