from an Emory who settled on land near the present Village of Queenstown about 1666. The family owned lands in Kent County, Delaware, as well as in Maryland. From the similarity of the names, and other circumstances I am inclined to think that your branch and mine are descended from the same stock.

From the records at the court house, Dover, I find that a Thomas Emory made a will Jan. 8 1789, leaving a wife, Deborah, and children; Thomas Arthur, John and William Emory; Villah Emory, Ann Willoughby, Deborah Frazier, and Sarah Sherwood.

Also that about two years later, April 28, 1791, a Thomas Emory made a will, leaving a wife Sarah; sons John and Gideon and a grandson, Thomas.

Also, that Nov. 29, 1814, a Thomas Emory of Caroline County,
