October 26, 1904.

My dear Mrs. Emory:

I have your note in answer to my request of your daughter for Emory memoranda, and am sorry to find that I have, seemingly, been remiss in not having supplied you with the information asked for in yours of February 2, 1897. I was under the impression I had done so, but must have delayed in order to obtain particulars in addition to those I had already sent to Rev. Mr. Warden on your behalf.

I hope the enclosed notes may make some amends for my unconscious redness.

Very Sincerely Yours
Frederic Emory.

Mrs. Lars Emory.
