fortunes, the fame of which has extended to Old England, justly claims precedence.

Lady Gilden was got by Sussex, out of Betsey Wilson by Hatsey, and in her veins mingle the blood of Imp. Figure, Lloyd's Traveller, Lindsey's Arabian, Ogle's Oscar, Imp. Gilden, Bedford, Sir Harry, Sir Charles, Sussex, and, "crowning all", Old Archy himself. Her pedigree in full will be found recorded in the "Turf Register", Vol. VI, page 438."

Among other Emory's who served as officers in the war of 1812 were John M. G. Emory, Captain Smith's Co., 4th Maryland Regt. and John Emory, Captain in the 38th Regt., (British Invasion of Maryland 1812-15 by Wm. M. Marine 1912.)

General Thomas Emory and Anna Marie Hensley had the following children:

Ann, born March 24, 1806 - married Dr. Wm. H. Thomas of Reston. Sarah Hensley, born Jan. 17, 1808, married Wm. Cooke Tilghman. Thomas Alexander, born March 9, 1809, married the daughter of General Winder. William Hensley, born Sept. 9, 1811, married Matilda W. Baube. Henrietta Earle, born Jan. 30, 1814, married Rev. David Kerr of "Foxley Hall" (which was originally the colonial estate of Charles Emory, now owned by Col. Oswald Tilghman.) Robert, Junior, born 1816 - died unmarried. John Register, 2nd, born 1818 - married Alice Gray Bourke-Burke. Albert Troup, born August 9, 1821 - married Sarah Winder. Frederick, born Sept. 9, 1829. Blanchard, born Nov. 23, 1831 - married Mary Bourke, sister of Alice. Augusta Forman, born October 3, 1824.