"Item — I give and bequeath unto my two daughters Anna White and Sarah Cook the plantation where Mr James Peterkin lately lived and died, the plantation now occupied by Anna Cox and the plantation where William Dean now lives and all the Lands I hold adjoining thereto except what is allready mentioned to be for my son Samuel) to them the said Anna White and Sarah Cook for and during their natural lives and no longer and after their deaths to the Heirs of their body Lawfully begotten to be divided between them in the following manner - viz to begin on the middle of the first line of a Tract of Land called Holbourn which will be near where the sch House formerly stood that was burned, from thence running to a marked post standing on the South East end of a deep ditch that was fou[illegible]ut to drain what is called the great Sava[illegible]h then that ditch and the drain it empties into, to the main branch of Ingrams Creek from thence directly across said branch to Marsey Hountains Land, all that part of the said Land that is on the Eastermost side of said division to my daughter Anna during her life as aforesaid and after her death to the heirs of her body Lawfully begotten as aforesaid, and all that part that lies to the Westward of said division to my daughter Sarah Cook during her life as aforesaid and after her death to the heirs of her body Lawfully begotten as aforesaid to be by them seperately possessed at the death of their mother, And I do will and order that my wife shall receive the rent and profits of my daughters Lands while she lives and supports them as she thinks necessary. and do also will and order that my said wife shall have and receive as