Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 3d inst relative to P. L. Faust received.

Faust was a man sent out by an agent in Philadelphia he proved absolutely unfitted for the work and a hindrance to the party. I paid his fare east, as at the time I let him go, he did not have any cash & I did not want to have him hanging around the hotel while he was waiting for money to be sent him, owing to the influence on the little man. When he reached Indiana at the start of work I advanced him sufficient for some working clothes, which accounted for his not having any
