If we run a few days into April pay the men with pesos checks and have them sign discharge checks. I have the official balance of cash on hand from my expenses over the first of the month, but as it is rather hard to estimate what the April pay roll & traveling expenses will amount to I will officially give you placing about $200 more at my disposal.

If I can dispose of the tent and blankets at 60% or 70% of their cost shall I do so & ship our entire outfit back to San Pedro. Of course I will drive the best possible bargain I quickly place them as a medium figure. Your letter relative to this office work received and I will
