(3)

put it in to you as fast as possible under the conditions under which we are at present working. And I hope you will be able that we are not stopping for rain in the field that we had been pushing after last Sunday on the line and I am endeavoring and effort to get the line tied together at the earliest moment

Yours truly
Lt Col J. C. Emery

We are having a frost tonight which I hope will relieve us of the snow difficulty.