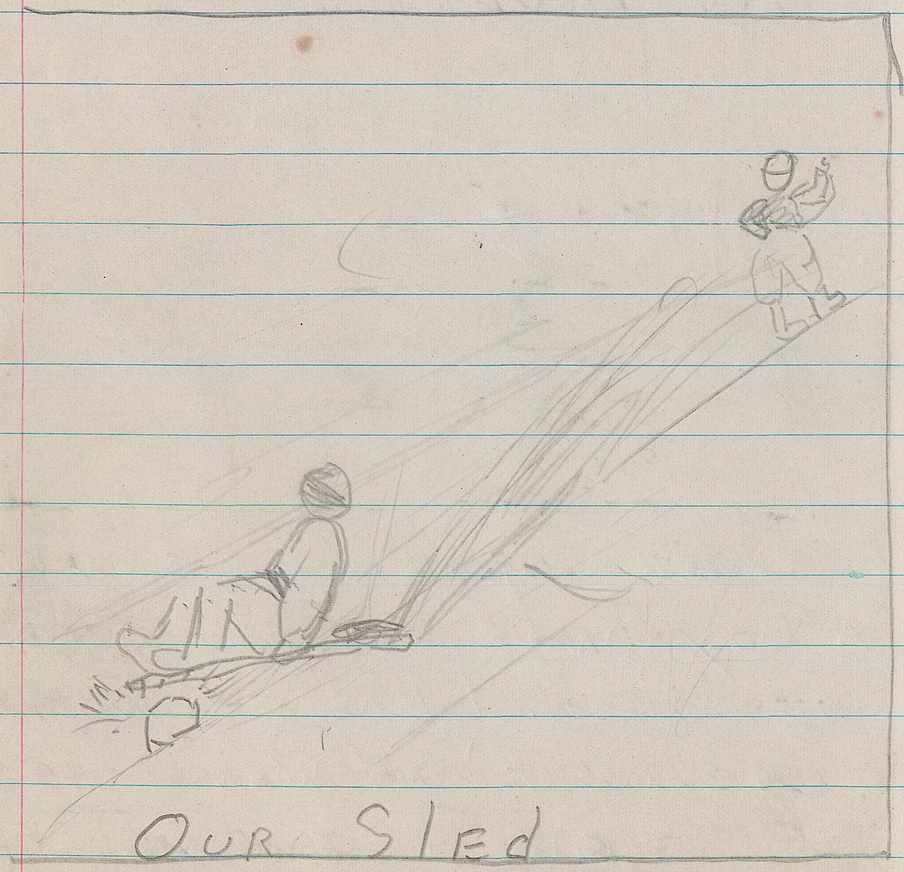
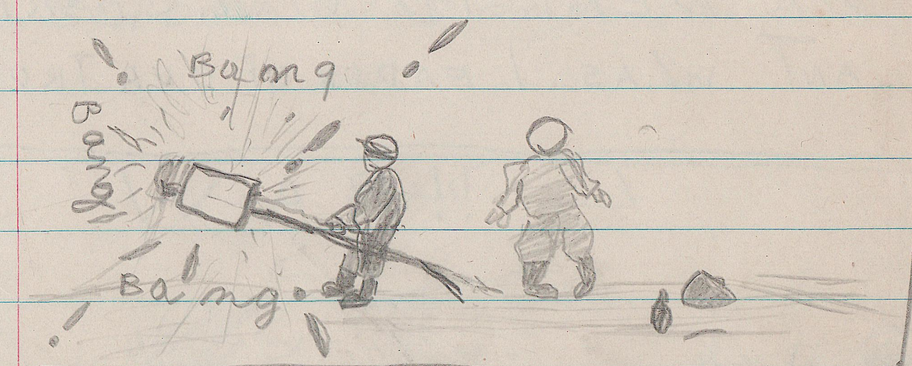
A few years after in the middle of the winter of 1934 another boy came to the school. He also was alone wolf.



Our Sled

The two boys became fast friends. They always played together and made allsorts of inventions.

An Invention



They made an imaginary country its head quarters was a rock. They also made geeseys which are branches of trees with cans on them.