DEAR MR. HUMPHRYS,

I EXPECT to reach New York about February 28th and I will write you a few days after my arrival as to our future plans.

At present I hope to return to Demerara in July prepared to make rather an extended stay but I do not want this information to get out at present. I am particularly anxious that the wounds inflicted on our rival should 40 heal a little and that they think I have given up Demerara.

Yours very truly,
LLOYD T. EMORY.
