MADRID was bred by Mr. R. A. Alexander, of Kentucky, by Royal Oxford, a pure Oxford of the most fashionable tribe, getting his Duchess blood through the 2d Grand Duke, Duke of Glocester and 2d Duke of Northumberland, and his Oxford blood through Lady Oxford, Oxford 6th, Oxford 2d, &c. The second Grand Duke was imported by Samuel Thorne, at one thousand guineas. Madrid's dam, Mazurka 10th, was by Imp. Duke of Airdrie (2730). Mr. Alexander, his importer, said in 1867, that he considered him the finest bull he ever imported, and his opinion has been fully sustained by the high reputation of his descendants in America. Madrid's 2d dam, Mazurka 2d, was by Imp. Orantes 2d (11877), imported and sold in 1852 for $4,850 when at one year old. Madrid's 3d dam was Imp. Mazurka by Harbinger (10297), &c.
