Edward B Emory Esq
Dear Sir:

I have your favor of Dec 31st. I had intended to send for my mares during the Christmas week but the weather prevented my doing so. My faithful man James Kearney will leave for your farm on Monday next unless something unforeseen should occur to prevent it. He will come prepared to settle for the keep of mares and I would be glad if you would take care of him for the night and send him along with mares on Tuesday. If I were twenty years younger I would enter into the sport of horse breeding with great zest and enjoyment, but I have about
