as in the exercise of his judgement he may deem proper and best for the interest of my estate, authorizing and empowering him to collect and receive all debts, and moneys due and owing unto me and proper and sufficient releases and acquittances, and receipts therefor to give and render, authorizing and empowering him to pay any and all debts due and owing by me, and in order to enable him more effectually to do so, authorizing and empowering him to borrow money in my name and behalf, and on negotiable paper or otherwise, and on such terms as he as in the exercise of his judgement, he may deem right and proper in the interest of my estate, and in order to raise money by renewal or otherwise, authorizing and empowering him to procure for me and in my stead and behalf securities of endorsers to all such paper or notes for whose indemnity my estate Real and personal is hereby