Mr. C. B. Emory,
Centreville, Md.

My dear Sir:-

Mr. Robt. Baxter has placed a claim of $40.43 for services rendered at Poplar Grove, from Dec. 26. 1888 to April 1st, 1889, at $12.# per month, and interest to date, in my hands for collection against you. Mrs. Robt. Baxter has done the same, her claim is $13.48 for superintending cooking for farm hands for the same period, at $4# per month, and interest added to date. Total $53.91. A credit of $15.# proved last must be given you. Thus leaving a final balance of $38.91. Mr. Emory please let me hear by return mail what you will do with this.

Very Respect.
J. H. C. Legg
