KENTUCKY STOCK FARM

PUBLISHING CO.,

LEXINGTON, KY.,

SAM'L G. BOYLE, Pres and Treas.
W. J. LYLE, Sec'y.
~~A. M. HARRISON~~, Adv. Manager.

W. M. Stodghill.

Edward B. Emory
Centerville
Md.

We wish to invite your attention to the KENTUCKY STOCK FARM, a weekly journal devoted to the interest of trotting horse breeders, and published at ''The Hub'' of the Horse Universe.

It is the only paper devoted exclusively to the trotting horse, and is read almost exclusively by trotting horse-breeders and fanciers, and we believe it goes to more of this class than any other journal. It circulates in every State in the Union, the territories and Canada, its readers including hundreds of HORSE BUYERS who have visited Lexington. If you have anything to sell to horsemen, horses at private sale or horses to be sold in the Lexington or other public sales, you should make buyers acquainted with your stallions and other stock before the sales take place.

Our advertising rates are VERY LOW--lower in proportion to benefits returned than those of any other paper.

We will insert your advertisement of 1½ inches double column, 26 insertions for the sum of $ 36. If you care to give the STOCK FARM a trial, please return this proposition with your order.

Do not confound the STOCK FARM with any other paper. If you have not seen it since the new management took charge, Send for sample copy.

Respectfully,

Kentucky Stock Farm Publishing Co.

S

(5208)

POPLAR GROVE FARM

Leads them all for early developed speed with the $12,000 trotting-bred stallion

Happy Russell 4494,

FOUR-YEAR-OLD RECORD 2:21½.

When only five years old his two-year-old daughter Happy Bee made a record of 2:29¾; when only six years old his one-year-old daughter Happy Lady made a record of 2:45. Did any other stallion ever have such a showing of speed at his age? He is not seven years old until March, 1891. His book now open for engagements. Fee $100 for the season—February 1 to December 1, 1891. For further particulars address

EDWARD B. EMORY, Centervil'e, Md. (5503)