Mr. E. B. Emory
Centerville - Md.

My dear Sir:

Yours of recent date came duly to hand. I am sorry to disappoint you again.

My arrangements were all made to ship the horse began this morning. But two or three of my friends fearing the colt would not come back here again, formed a little combination and bought him for $1200.

I advised them to send him right to you, but I do not think they intend training him this year.

I am very sorry to miss the trip to Poplar Grove, for I would like above all things to see your colts at their work, and those that are not at work.

If you have of a more well bred enough to go to "Rewsee" that you
