Dear Sir, Please have the colt broken as carefully as possible and ship with the mare Feb. 1st. Please have blankets put on them and send me bill for this and I will remit. If you will read my letter again you will see that I did not claim any advantage from a bargain made on Sunday but gave it as a reason why I did not think I had made any positive bargain. A statement in your last letter further leads me to believe that I am right that is that I stated that I wanted a double cross to Nutwood. This cannot be true as my mare has not a drop of Nutwood blood. No matter however who is right I would rather pay the $50.00 if the mare is in foal, rather than have any words or misunderstanding about the matter. As I wrote you some time ago you have made a mistake in you account which I think on
