LAW OFFICE OF
DAVID P. GUEST,
ROOM 509 COLUMBIA BUILDING.

Norfolk, Va., March 14th, 1895.

E. B. Emory, Esq.
Centreville, Md.
Dear Sir:

I have just returned and will now be here uninterruptedly. I saw Linthicum this morning and he refused to do anything about your note. I have made enquiry and learned that he can probably make the money out of him by attaching some of his debtors. If you will guarantee me the costs I will proceed to push this matter vigorously till we get the money. I still have your check for $1.50. Am very sorry so much time has already elapsed, but will try to make up for it now.

Yours very truly,
David P. Guest.
