Dear Sir. your 17th Inst to hand & read with much interest. From your discription of Regalia - her gait & will power & fearlessness - you certainly have the coming trotter in her. If you will only go slow with her - & not spoil her - If you ever read the history of Gold Smiths maid - you will recollect she acted this way - except she ran off & behaved much worse. Then Jno Splan great race horse this year Neuberger in his 2 - & 3 year old acted worse. & several others that I cared mention. but they are finally got down to work - & your filly will do the same. I would suggest you work her double. & hitch her up. away from the stable - & use an open bridle. If that dont teach her - hitch her double to a milk wagon. with a carefull driver - who would not whip her - Most of our mean horses are used in milk wagons & they soon get all right - Dexter - was used to a milk wagon. Of course the driver must be cool & sober - Now my best suggestion is - to give her two or three lumps of loaf sugar. Every time you go when she is. & Especially when you are hitching her up. & she will soon become as fond of it as a child of Candy - & become gentle & fond of you - I have
