Mr E. B. Emory
Dear Sir
Your postal at hand to day, I am not surprised that Mr. Skinner would rather take two twenty five for his horse, he could never realize that amount of money out of him in any shape, horses are to cheap, could buy two good ones for that money, But with the offer I made he may realize a great deal more than the price he offered him for, then he has no practical use for him I have if the man who is condition she is a fellow had horse than he is, she down will be, then he has the cash extra which stands me as much as he asks for his horse, I have a pair of
