Dear Sir Yours of this date to hand. I am sorry you have not realized on Victor yet but hope you may be able to sell him soon if not I feel confident you can get at least 75% out of him in stud fees but that I know is a very unsatisfactory way being a long wait, and means more expense on him before the return begin.

I have a few of the old stud books left and if any value or use to you I shall be pleased to send them to you. I think a horse with 2.29¼ record at $10— ought to take well in the section I mentioned. In regard to State Library I am not counting very heavy on that although it is my only hope for future that I can now see. There are some 29 people after the place and I presume all ably backed. I have the endorsement of all the members of our Co Central Com. Mr Russum has
