LAW OFFICE OF
DAVID P. GUEST,
ROOM 509 COLUMBIA BUILDING.

Norfolk, Va., May 16th 1895

E. B. Emory, Esq.,
Dear Sir:

In accordance with your promise to guarantee me costs in your suit against Lilly, I will be obliged if you will send me, on receipt of this letter, $2.30 to cover execution levied by Constable.

Had you answered my last letter I could have avoided this for you. Regretting that you did not, I am

Yours very truly,
David P. Guest.

Your judgment stands against Lilly and if I see that anything is owing to him personally, at any time, I will attach it.
