My dear Sir,
Your favor of Jany. 27th came to hand this A.M. I would like very much to have either Royal Russell or Bedworth next Spring, but I am afraid from the out look at present, that it would not be wise to send either one of them there. (to West River)

The roads are full of sleds of all kinds and conditions, and the monetary outlook for tobacco growing people is so poor that I am afraid the horse would not be patronized. There are so many actors who had there for as much less money, not nearly as good a horse, but in times like these, people who are not really horse people do not seem to look at relative or real values. They go for the cheapest
