WILLIAM W. SMITHERS,
No. 723 WALNUT ST.,
PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.
SEP 26
2-30 P.M.
1893

Mr. E. B. Emory
Centreville
Maryland

LAW OFFICES
OF
WILLIAM W. SMITHERS,
No. 723 WALNUT STREET.

No.....

Subject.....

.....

Philadelphia, Sept. 26, 1893

Mr. E. B. Emory
Centreville, Md.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Geo. Mollenkopf, Jr. has requested me to send to you a copy of a certain letter from you to him. It is as follows: "Centreville, Md.
April 8th 1893

Geo. Mollenkopf, Esq.

My dear sir,-

Your letter at hand and contents noted. You have been unfortunate in not getting more colts and I regret it exceedingly and am willing to help you out by returning the two bay mares to be bred free to Happy Russell as you suggest, but think if you are breeding any other mares than the two referred to this Spring, you should give me at least a part of your patronage with the others to Happy Russell &c. (the balance refers to other matters) -

Very truly yr friend
Edw. B. Emory

If you come down with the mares bring the springs for contracted feet.

E.B.E.

Yours truly
W. W. Smithers