Mr Emory:-

Dear Sir-

I answered the letter you wrote me dated July 29 and addressed you Arlington Po. Balto. Co. and as I have not heard from you, I thought perhaps you did not get the letter, I write again. In regard to the lot I am very thankful to you for taking it off my hands you made a mistake in the amount Mr Bryan owed for hay you remember you accepted an order on Chance, and the store account you made the last year he was at Burrisville left a balance of nine dol-

Dear Sir:-

I appreciate your kindness in taking the lot off my hands, I am more than glad to think I have an opportunity to pay you the bill Mr Bryan owed you, but you are laboring under a mistake in regard to it being ($16) sixteen dollars, Mr Bryan said you and he had a settlement last year, And the store account you made the last year he was at Burrisville, and the order Chance gave him which you accepted

Dear Sir:-

Pardon me if I annoy you in writing. But I am in actual need, is why I press you to take the lot off my hands. I will leave you the judge of its value knowing you are a just man. I wrote to you a month ago and got hearing from you supposed you were not at home. If you will favor me please send the amount immediately. you can send a registered letter or a check but I prefer the letter by so doing you will greatly oblige.

Yours Respectfully

Wm. B. Bryan
