Sabin called me away from finishing this yesterday afternoon to go swimming I went as it was the only opportunity I have had. We went down through the woods about half a mile north of the town. They have fine woods all through this country Great oak & elm trees.

When we struck the stream it was one of the prettiest I ever saw. It was about sixty feet wide & clear as crystal, with a sandy bottom. The large trees on either bank reached more than over the middle of the stream. So we were not afraid of getting sunburnt.
You can just bet I enjoyed it.
Last night we just set our cots up on the station platform I am getting so that it does not make the slightest difference where I sleep. We
