I will lose a lot of time by going back to school. So you see I have to take every opper-tunity I can get to pull up. Jack is so hard + he + I are running together.
Poor Ford got his checks with the rest of the crowd + is just waiting here for something to turn up. He has several good irons on the look out for him + I think he will get something soon. You need not mention this to any body as I do not know weather he wants it known or the east or not.
Well I have not been in bed + until twelve o'clock for a week + getting up at five so I am nearly dead. I have gotten two days off before I commence my new work so I will have time to straten up.

Sincerly Bunnie
