Dear Brother,

I received your letter yesterday but it was rather late. This morning we had a little snow and now about two inches deep. We have all been counting all through the coming day out of the Chandler. I am still on duty here and expect it is a very good thing for me because I could not do a great deal. I get real strong again since the blue I received. I have lots of trouble on getting the wolves out of my cattle all time I have not of brigade of cavalry on it. We have had a pretty good time in our party in the way of a transfer our old one got promoted. He is now Capt. & has been down on Indian for some time. I will give you a description of him. Long, rather stiff under order tall with very broad shoulders & curly hair he has a face like something like Frank Thompson. He can not say two words with out getting his jaw hinged & I am almost shaking with I with to be home
