Dear Father —

I was sorry to see
that you would get a letter from your lady
friend I was disappointed that I have been on foot work for the past two weeks. I know
it is the cause of
being for once not
am not at all fond
of it. Standing lean ing over a drafting
table just about

my legs ache all night.
I have been up again
on appeal according
all the morning so I
feel pretty tired.
I wish you could see a couple of plans I am making. It the finest kind of experien
I would enjoy it
ver so much if I did not have to keep
keyed up to the top
notch all the time
to keep it up.
It is the feeling of
