My darling Alice.

Your letters of the 9th and Sunday reached me this evening - as it stormed so much up the state of N.Y. I concluded would make Stud take city and if it cleared off I would come here - which I did - and I am ready for work tomorrow morning - I had quite a talk with Stubbs - and it seems he has sent his girl back to Phila - he went to Trenton Sunday - I suppose to meet her - yet I can not see a thing about it - as I did not ask him - and he was not at all communicative - I guess he will talk it all out to me some other time - poor fellow - I many times pity him - for he could not give up this woman - after being with her so long - indeed he told me today - why his wife & he grew apart - it is a sad story - I have said all I ever intend. I hoped you and Phebe enjoyed the day with Etta - particularly as if your brother was not disagreeable - I feel you have been doing your strength - sewing as you are - It must be a great comfort to you having things so quiet around you -

The indigestion has departed - yet I feel miserable with my knee tonight - I guess I am extravagant as usual - they do not really pain me yet there is a stiffness when I get up - and they feel uncomfortable when I am sitting - but - warm off when I move around - I hope you suffer much more than I do - for I have noticed your moments when you have been sitting for some time.
