Week days	Mo. day	bound	Place of the Ship at Noon	Remarks and Occurrences	Signals A.M.	Signals P.M.	Signals No.	Signals By what Ship	Signals To what Ship
January Monday (continued)	2d	1815 Stbd		Ammunition &c Seamen employed transporting them up the Canal. Fatigue Parties employed repairing the roads	On	Shore	with	the	Army
Tuesday	3d	Northy.		A. M. Fine weather. The arrival of the Vengeur and Convoy was reported Several Boats arrived with ammunition &c Sending do up the Canal. Repairing Roads &c	On	Shore	with	the	Army
Wednesday	4th	Stbd		A. M. Fine weather. Maj: General Lambert arrived Also several Boats with Provisions &c & part of the 7th & 43d Regiments - A large working Party was employed in clearing and widening the Canal of M. Villere to render it passable for the Boats of the Fleet being brought to the Mississippi	On	Shore	with	the	Army
Thursday	5th	Wnbd		A. M. Fine weather Several Boats arriving with Troops and Supplies. Fatigue Parties clearing the Canal, repairing & making Roads &c Enemys Batteries firing occasionally.	On	Shore	with	the	Army
Friday	6th	N.E.		A. M. Moderate and fine Troops and Supplies arriving Fatigue Parties clearing the Canal, making & repairing Roads Seamen transporting Ammunition, Provisions &c Carpenters repairing and making Carronade Slides for the Boats to be launched into the Mississippi.	On	Shore	with	the	Army
Saturday	7th	E.b.S.		A. M. Fine weather The Canal being well filled with water the Boats were ordered up - And at Noon Barges Yawls and Cutters in number about Fifty were hauled up by their respective Boats Crews and ranged in the Canal from the Main road down towards the Landing Place. At 7 p. m. the Seamen were ordered	On	Shore	with	the	Army