A. M. Ship Tartarus in the West Schelde June 1815

Week days	M. day	Wind & weather	Place of the Ship	Remarks and Occurrences	Signals A.M.	Signals P.M.	Signals No.	Signals By what Ship	Signals To what Ship
June 1815			Tartarus in the West Schelde	A. M. Moderate breezes and Cloudy weather Several Transports working down from Antwerp At Noon Tartarus moored in the Wielinge Passage.
Monday	26th	A.M.W.		P. M. Fresh breezes and Cloudy weather The Chance Schooner arrived from Ostend with Dispatches At Midnight do. weather
Tuesday	27th	North	Tartarus moored in Flushing Roads	A. M. Moderate breezes and Cloudy weather. At 4-30 unmoored Ship. At 6. the Chance sailed for Ostend with a Convoy of Transports. At 10 weighed & made sail At 11 shortened sail and came to with the Best Bower in 17 fathoms, in Flushing Roads. Lying here a Dutch Line of Battle Ship bearing the Flag of Vice Admiral Van Braam a Frigate, Corvette and several Transports & other vessels. P. M. do. weather At 7 weighed & shifted to the Eastward. let go the Small Bower in 18 fms. and moored Ship. At Midnight do. weather
Wednesday	28th	North		A. M. Moderate breezes & Cloudy weather. At Noon Tartarus moored in Flushing Roads. P. M. Moderate and Cloudy weather A Dutch Frigate & Brig sailed with a Convoy of Merchant vessels At Midnight Moderate and Cloudy weather					