His Majesty's Ship Tartarus in the West Schelde - July 1815

Week days	Mo. days	Winds	Place of the Ship	Remarks and occurrences	Signals A.M.	Signals P.M.	Signals No.	By What Ship	To What Ship
July 1815			Flushing Roads	A. M. Moderate breezes & Cloudy weather Arrived and anchored the Venus Dutch Corvette
Wednesday	5th	Obla		At Noon Tartarus and Wrangler moored in Flushing Roads - P. M. Moderate & Clear At Midnight do. weather
Thursday	6th	Obla		A. M. Light breezes and pleasant weather At Noon Tartarus and Wrangler moored in Flushing Roads - P. M. Mod. and fine Wr. At Midnight do. weather
Friday	7th	North		A. M. Moderate breezes & Cloudy with rain at times At Noon Tartarus and Wrangler moored in Flushing Roads - P. M. do - weather - At Midnight do — do -
Saturday	8th	N.N.W.		A. M. Fresh breezes and Cloudy weather At Noon Tartarus and Wrangler moored in Flushing Roads P. M. Fresh breezes with rain At Midnight Light breezes with heavy rain
Sunday	9th	N.N.W.		A. M. Fresh breezes with rain at times At Noon Tartarus and Wrangler moored in Flushing Roads. P. M. Do - weather The Pioneer and several Merchant vessels arrived At Midnight Moderate breezes and cloudy
Monday	10th	North		A. M. Moderate and fine Several Transports with Prisoners & Wounded came down the River P. M. Moderate and fine At Midnight do weather					