His Majesty's Ship Newcastle - Saturday 14th June 1817

Days of the Week	Date	Winds	Place of the Ship at Noon	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals Det	Signals P.M.	Signals No.	Signals By What Ship	Signals To What Ship
June Saturday	1817 14th	S.E. bble		A.M. Mod: breezes & cloudy w: rain At Noon do. weather. P.M. Sailed the St Helena Schooner for Bengala. At 12 do. weather.
Sunday	15th	S.E.		A.M. Mod: breezes & Cloudy. At Noon do. weather. P.M. The Lulia arrived from a Cruize in search of the Island of St. Matthews At 12 Light breezes & Cloudy
Monday	16th	S.E.		A.M. Mod: breezes & Cloudy. Noon do - weather. P.M. The Island Sloop anchored At 12 do weather
Tuesday	17th	S.E.		A.M. Mod: & Cloudy with rain Noon do. weather. P.M. The Lucy & Maria sailed for England. The Leveret anchored At 12 do. weather.
Wednesday	18th	S.E.		A.M. Moderate breezes & Cloudy The Podargus arrived from the Cape. Noon do - weather. P.M. do - do At 12 Moderate & fine.
Thursday	19th	S.E.		A.M. Mod: breezes & Cloudy At Noon do. weather. P.M. The Leveret sailed. At 10 Observed two sail in the Offing. At 12 do weather
Friday	20th	S.E.		A.M. Mod: breezes & Cloudy The Lady Campbell Indiaman sailed for England Noon do: Mod: & fine. At 12 Mod: & Cloudy.
Saturday	21st	S.E.		A.M. Moderate & Cloudy. Noon do. weather. P.M. The Leveret anchored
Sunday	22nd	S.E.		A.M. Mod: breezes & Cloudy. Noon do weather P.M. The Brothers sailed for the Cape. At 12 Mod: with small rain
Monday	23	S.E.		A.M. Mod: & Cloudy with rain The Leveret sailed to windward Noon do weather P.M. The Falmouth anchored At 12 do weather.

H.M.S. Newcastle moored with Mr Cross