Date	Position at Noon	Head of Orders & Letters Received	Heads of Orders and Letters Written Codrington Journal ADM 50/119	Signals from Ship	Signals to Ship	Remarks and Occurrences
Thursday August 4 1814	Lat. Obs.d 32°:11' N Long 67°:03' Cape Henry N 48° W 436 Miles	None	An order to the Tonnant, Asia, Dragon and Ramilies to select 100 Seamen each for the purpose of forming an Artillery Brigade. They are to be placed under the direction of a Lieut.t and 4 Midshipmen to be exercised frequently in the use of transportation of Field pieces and small arms and to be held in readiness to land and accompany the Army whenever wanted.	To Hornet 216	None	Daylight Sunrise not in Sight. Hornet in Company at Sunset.
Friday August 5 1814	Lat. 33°:22 N Long 64:40 C. Henry N 80 W 410 Miles	None	None	none	None	Hornet in Company
Saturday Aug 6 1814	Lat. 33°:02' Long 70°:11' Cape Henry N 71 W 374 Miles	None	None	None	None	Hornet in Company
Sunday Aug 7 1814	Lat. 33°:57 Long. 71°:04 Cape Henry N 54 W 309 Miles	None	None	None Island bound for Bermuda, by intercepted letter how work going on. The day after saw a schr. but did not board. Yesterday a Spaniard from Havannah to Corunna	From Eurydice 401 Telegraph from D° Stranger from America	Daylight Hornet in Co. 7 32 a strange Sail on Starboard Quarter proved to be Eurydice CORUNNA
Monday Aug. 8, 1814	Lat 35°:00 Long 73°:23' Cape Henry N 50° W 180 Miles	None	None	None	None	Eurydice in Co. 10.15 Lost sight of Hornet.
Tuesday Aug. 9 1814	Lat. 36°:12' N Long 75°:12 W Cape Henry N 53° W 74 Miles	None	None	To Eurydice Telegraph intend standing off until 12 unless wind changes 161 Compass Sig.s SWbN (sic)	None	6 am Boarded a Spanish vessel from the Chesapeake to St. Bartholomeus Eurydice in Company made the land
Wednesday August 10 1814	Lat. 36°:17 Long. 75°:3 Cape Henry N 28 W 48 Miles	None	None	To Eurydice Telegraph Now obtainable Do you see Light House 108	From Eurydice Shall endeavour to get Pilots answer No.	Daylight standing in for the land Eurydice in Company